WHY PEOPLE DONATE TIME & MONEY

The primary reason people donate their own time or money is because they believe they are making a lasting worthwhile contribution, and thus, this gives satisfaction to the giver. It is important however, to ask!

Simply said, you feel good when you help others. Recent estimated charitable donations account for $190 billion a year.

It is easy to see why the WhisperGLIDE[®] swing can be a natural “fundraising project”. Most of us identify with swinging, and the design of the WhisperGLIDE makes swinging an intergenerational, social, inclusive therapeutic activity.

FUNDRAISING APPROACHES & IDEAS

From retirement and care centers across America, there is an amazing number of different type money-raising methods used. This ranges from simply selling candy bars to getting support from a local bank or VFW. Fundraising activities often can be classified into three “methods” or “approaches”- and many times it is a combination of two or three activities which works best for your particular fundraiser. These approaches are:

1. Facility-directed fundraising activities

Examples: annual bazaars, picnics, bake sales, memorial gifts, etc.

2. Local organization & business support

Examples: American Legion, VFW, Knights of Columbus, Walmart, etc.

3. Foundation grants

Types: Local foundations, foundations interested in geriatric care, community care foundations, etc.

Facility-Directed Fundraising Activities

There are many different approaches that a facility may use to successfully raise funds for any worthy project. Examples include:

- | | | | |
|------------------|--------------|--|-------------|
| *Annual bazaar | *Picnic | *Charitable bowling event | *Chili-feed |
| *Memorial gifts | *Flower sale | *Charitable golf event | *Raffle |
| *Sell candy bars | *Bake sale | *Fundraising solicitation in facility newsletter | |

Consider involving community youth in your fundraising efforts. For example, Life Scouts of the Boy Scouts of America who desire to earn the coveted Eagle Scout designation must complete a project such as fundraising for a nonprofit organization. This project could be an extensive enhancement of an existing courtyard. Foundations are often very receptive to an appeal by a prospective Eagle Scout. Talk to your local scout organization about this possibility. Just think: a WhisperGLIDE or two in a beautifully landscaped courtyard just for the asking!

Another example is asking your local school to participate in a “penny drive”- collecting pennies to fund the swing. Call WhisperGLIDE for details.

Local Organization & Business Support

With so many local organizations that wish to support the community, the number one rule-of-thumb is just ask! This support is given in monetary gifts, matching funds or help with raising the needed money.

Local organizations to consider for support:

- *Lions Club *American Legion or VFW *Scouts
- *Community Bank *Rotary Club
- *Affiliated Church *Knights of Columbus
- *Walmart, and other retail businesses
- *Thrivent Financial Services
 (formerly Lutheran Brotherhood and Aid Association for Lutherans)
- *Miscellaneous organizations – ask your Chamber of Commerce for advice

Communicating to interested parties can be done extremely well with product literature available FREE from WhisperGLIDE!

Foundation Grants

Networking, and also research at the library, works best here. Many foundations specifically state a focus on interests such as “Alzheimer’s”, “Nursing Homes”, or “Geriatrics”.

See the guide Keys to Obtaining a Grant for WhisperGLIDE Swings, available free from WhisperGLIDE Swing Company. This guide contains a review of foundations, how and where to research foundations, and how to write a grant.

FUNDRAISING ACTIVITY SUMMARY

Regardless of the method(s) chosen in fundraising, frequently the outcome depends upon the success of your initial contacts, so take a little time and see if someone you know has a key contact (network!).

When you complete your fundraising activity, take time to recognize donors. In addition to a thank-you letter, short notes from individuals who benefit from the swing (residents, volunteers, staff) are greatly appreciated. Also consider donor recognition as part of a newspaper article, a mention in your facility newsletter, or participation in a swing “dedication party” (see Marketing & Community Relations with your WhisperGLIDE Swing, the free guide available on our website or through calling us.

Thanks
